2024 IEEE Information Theory Workshop

November 24-28, 2024 · Shenzhen, China.

<http://ieee-itw2024.org>

The conference consists of a daily plenary followed by two parallel technical sessions throughout the day.

IEEE-ITW'24 solicits and welcomes original contributions on the frontiers of information theory, statistics, coding theory, and their applications, as well as interactions between information theory and other fields such as data science, biology, and signal processing.

Call for Papers

We encourage interested authors to submit previously unpublished contributions from a broad range of topics related to information and coding theory as well as its connections with other areas, including but not limited to the following.

- ◆ Machine learning and big data analytics.
- ◆ Frontiers of coding theory and practice.
- ◆ Quantum information and coding.
- ◆ Information theory and statistics, biology and signal processing.
- ◆ Network information theory.
- ◆ Network coding and distributed storage.
- ◆ Information theoretic security.

Important Dates

Paper Submission Deadline: April 26, 2024

Acceptance Notification: July 29, 2024
